Genoua, May 28. N. S.

THE Squadrons of Naples and Turfis, making together 15 Gallies, paſſed before this Port the 25th Inſtant, being come from the Coaſt of Naples with about 800 Soldiers on board, whom they landed at Final, from whence they are to march to Milan; after which 13 of the ſaid Gallies ſailed towards the Streights Mouth.

Venice, June 3. The Cardinal d'Eſtrees returned hither the 28th paſt from the Courts of Modena and Parma, being but ill ſatisfied with the Succeſs of his Negociation there. The Imperial Ambaſſador is alſo come back from Roveredo, where he has been to confer with Prince Eugene of Savoy, and had Audience of the Senate the 30th. The Prince of Darmſtad arrived here the 28th from Catalonia, and continued his Journey to Vienna the next day. Letters from Verona give an Account, that 4000 Imperial Horſe were entred in the Territory of Vicenza, and had poſted themſelves in the Plains of Cologna, Montagnana, and Lonigo, where they expected a ſmall Body of Foot, with a deſign to proceed together towards Legnano, and that the French had made a detachment of 4000 Horſe who were marching on the other ſide of the Adige to obſerve the Forces commanded by General Palfi. Prince Eugene of Savoy was advanced with 16000 Germans and 12 field-pieces to the Valley of Poliſella, and was followed by the Artillery and Bigage. 'Tis ſaid, the Imperial Army will in few days be above 30000 ſtrong, and will march towards Ferrara and Modena.

Vienna, June 1. The Letters from Prince Eugene of Savoy of the 26th paſt give an Account, that finding the French had poſſeſſed themſelves of the Paſſes on the ſide of Rivole, the Imperial Forces had turned their March towards the Country of Vicenza; and that Count Palfi was ordered to march before with 4000 Horſe and Dragoons to a Place called Legnano, to ſecure the Bridge that is there over the Adige, or (if that could not be effected) to make a Bridge of Boats in order to the Army's paſſing that River. The Regiments of Horſe of Newburgh and Darmſtad arrived at Lintz the 30th paſt, and continued their March the next day to join the Imperial Army in Italy. A great quantity of Corn, and other Proviſions was ſent from hence this week for the Service of the Imperial Troops in that Country. The Imperial Court came the 28th paſt to the Palace at Favorita, and will return to morrow to Laxemburgh. Count Solary, who was ſent to Hungary to ſeize Prince Ragozzi, Count Sirmey, and divers other Perſons accuſed of being concerned in the late Plot, and to take Informations concerning this Conſpiracy, is returned hither, and went yeſterday to Favorita, to give the Emperor an Account of his Proceedings; and Count Otting, with the other Commiſſioners appointed to try theſe Priſoners, will ſhortly be going to Newſtad, where they are kept under a very cloſe Confinement, no body being admitted to ſpeak with them. An Expreſs arrived here this week from Poland, upon which the Emperor's Council have met ſeveral times, 'tis ſaid he has brought an Anſwer to the Letter which the Emperor lately ſent to the King of Poland to preſs him to an Accommodation with Sweden, and that the King of Poland expreſſes a willingneſs to enter into a Treaty for that purpoſe, provided the Czar be included therein. Letters from Adrianople of the 30th of April give an Account, that the Grand Signior arrived there the 10th from Conſtantinople, and that the Grand Viſier was ſhortly expected. An Envoy was on his way thither from Moſcow, with the Ratifications of the Treaty of Peace concluded between the Czar and the Port. They had received an Account from Bagdad, that the Perſians refuſing to yield to the Turks the Town of Baſſora, the Baſſaw of Bagdad drew together a conſiderable Body of Forces to oblige them to it, upon whoſe approach the Perſians complied, and the Baſſaw having taken Poſſeſſion of the Place, was marched againſt the Arabs, who are in Rebellion againſt the Grand Signior.

Francfort, June 8. The Deputies of ſeveral Princes and Towns of the Upper Rhine are come hither to aſſiſt at a Diet of this Circle, which is to meet in a day or two. New Levies are making in the Palatinate for the Elector Palatine's Service. They write from Alſace, that the French continue to fill their Magazines at Landau, and other Places on that Frontier, with Proviſions and Ammunition, and that they talk of forming two Camps in a ſhort time, the one between Heuningen and New Briſac, and the other near Landau.

Cologne, June 10. The Elector of Cologne returned the 8th Inſtant to Bon from viewing the Towns of Zons, Rhynberg, and Keyſerſwaert. The Levies for his Service are continued with great diligence, and Horſes are bought up for his new-raiſed Troops. The Count of Naſſaw Weilburgh is returned to Duſſeldorp from the Hague, where he has been to Negociate ſeveral Matters with the States, in relation to the Forces which the Elector Palatine will ſend to their Aſſiſtance; His Electoral Highneſs has reſolved to divide every Regiment of Horſe and Foot in his Service into two Parts, each of which is to be made up by new Levies to a compleat Regiment, and Men are raiſing for this purpoſe with all poſſible expedition; And that Horſes may not be wanting for the Cavalry, the Elector has ſtrictly forbid their being ſent out of the Countries of Berg and Juliers; and more effectually to prevent the ſame, all the Inhabitants are obliged to bring their Horſes to the next Magiſtrates, who are to take an Account of their Numbers, and put a certain Mark upon them. 'Tis ſaid, that a Camp of about 25000 Men of the Forces of the King of Pruſſia, the Elector Palatine, and other Princes, will be formed in a ſhort time near Nuys.

Hamburgh, June 10. Mr. Creſſet, Envoy Extraordinary from His Majeſty of Great-Britain, went from hence this day to the Court of Celle. The Duke of Holſtein Gottorp is gone from hence to Rhynbeck, and intends, after a ſhort ſtay there, to go and take a Review of the Swediſh Forces in Pomeren. Letters from Norcoping of the 2d Inſtant ſay, about 50 Tranſport Ships were ſailed from thence with 1700 Swediſh Horſe and 600 Foot for Revel, and that there were more Forces ready to embark in that Port to be likewiſe tranſported to Livonia.

Bruſſels, June 14. The French Forces are to march this week from their Quarters, in order to canton on the Frontiers of theſe Provinces, and 15 Battalions, and as
